In Re: Toyota Motor Corp. Unintended
Acceleration Marketing, Sales
Practices, and Products Liability
Litigation

CASE NO: 8:10ML02151 JVS(FMOx)

This document relates to:

ALL CASES

ORDER NO. 2: ADOPTION OF ORGANIZATION PLAN AND
APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL

At the outset, the Court thanks the authors of the Joint Preliminary Report (Docket No. 8) and all counsel for their thoughtful and extensive submissions on the structure of this litigation. The filings represent a thorough consideration of the complexity which these pretrial proceedings face.

I. Adoption of Structure.

The Court finds that plaintiffs' counsel should be structured as follows:

1 • A liaison committee for personal injury/wrongful death cases,
2 consisting of two co-lead counsel and a total of nine members,
3 including the co-leads. The committee will have the duties outlined in 4 the Manual for Complex Litigation (Fourth) § 22.62, but tailored to 5 reflect retention by individual counsel of the unique aspects of each
6 personal injury/wrongful death case.

8 • A lead counsel committee for the economic loss cases, consisting of 9 two co-leads who represent consumer plaintiffs and one co-lead who
10 represents non-consumer plaintiffs, and six additional members
11 consisting of five counsel who represent consumer plaintiffs and one 12 counsel who represents non-consumer plaintiffs. The committee will
13 have the duties outlined in the Manual for Complex Litigation
14 (Fourth) § 22.62.

15 • A core discovery committee consisting of the co-lead liaison counsel
16 for the personal injury/wrongful death cases and the co-lead counsel
17 for the economic loss plaintiffs. There shall be two co-leads of the 18 core discovery committee, one designated by the liaison committee
19 and one designated by the lead counsel committee. The co-leads may 20 add by agreement a total of four additional members from the liaison
21 committee and/or the lead committee. Thus, the core discovery
22 committee shall be no larger than nine.

23
24 • Three liaison counsel to the state cases and other types of federal 25 cases to coordinate between the core discovery committee and the 26 state and federal litigation. The duties of plaintiffs' state and federal 27 liaison counsel shall be limited to liaison.

- One or more counsel who shall have specific duties limited to a particular factual or legal area.

This structure is somewhat larger than the Court initially envisioned. However, the Court became convinced at the initial hearing that a larger group of counsel is needed to meet the needs of this case.

The Court declines to appoint a series of specialized committees. (See Joint Preliminary Report, pp. 3-4.) The Court believes these tasks can best be addressed by the committees which the Court has appointed in a centralized framework. In this regard, the Court notes the depth of the firms of many of the appointees.

II. Core Discovery.

In its April 13, 2010 Order, the Court suggested a definition of core discovery: “By core discovery, the Court means discovery of the development, marketing, sales, manufacture, and administration of the Toyota products and product programs at issue in this case.” (Docket No. 3, p. 2.) The scope likely includes all the issues outlined in the Joint Preliminary Report (pp. 9-20), but the Court agrees with the Toyota parties that it would be more productive to allow the parties to negotiate a joint definition, which the Court believes should occur as part of adopting a discovery program. (See Section IV.B, infra.) It is premature for the Court to attempt to define the scope of discovery at this time.

III. Appointments.

The Court makes the appointments listed below, but first deals with

1 the issue of conflicts of interests.

3 A. Conflicts of Interest.

5 On May 3, 2010, the Court invited comments on whether a conflict
6 exists if counsel represent both personal injury/wrongful death plaintiffs and 7 economic loss plaintiffs and whether a conflict exists if counsel represent both 8 consumer economic loss plaintiffs and non-consumer economic loss plaintiffs.
9 (Docket No. 92.) The Court has concluded that neither combination of 10 representations constitutes a disqualifying conflict which bars the appointment of 11 counsel to a leadership position.

12 First, the supposed conflict between personal injury/wrongful death
13 plaintiffs and economic loss plaintiffs is premised on the theory that these 14 categories of plaintiffs are competing for a limited pool of resources to fund any 15 judgment.¹ (E.g., Docket No. 53, pp. 5-6; Docket No. 149, p. 1.) However, such 16 concerns appear speculative at this time in view of the representations that Toyota
17 had revenues of more than $200 billion in 2009. See Blackie v. Barrack, 524 F.2d
18 891, 909 (9th Cir. 1975); In re First American Corp. Erisa Litigation, 258 F.R.D.
19 610, 619 (C.D. Cal. 2009). Moreover, the Court notes that Toyota announced on 20 May 11, 2010 an annual profit of approximately $2.2 billion for the fiscal year
21 ending March 31, 2010.²

23
24 ¹Arguably, the same contention could be made with respect to representation of consumer
25 and non-consumer economic loss plaintiffs, but it would suffer from the same flaw.

26 ² See, e.g., Hiroko Tabuchi, Toyota Posts $2.2 Billion Annual Profit, N.Y. Times, May 27 11, 2010, <http://www.nytimes.com/2010/05/12/business/global/12toyota.html>.

1 Second, the differences between consumer and non-consumer
2 economic loss plaintiffs may require representation of both types of plaintiffs in 3 the leadership, but dual representation does not create a conflict. Courts have 4 regularly permitted counsel to represent different types of claimants within a class
5 or subclasses. See, e.g., In re Medtronic, Inc., 2008 WL 3895933 at *3 (D. Minn.
6 Aug. 15, 2008) (MDL 1726); Moreno v. Autozone, Inc., 251 F.R.D. 417, 425
7 (N.D. Cal. 2008); In re Serzone Products Liability Litigation, 231 F.R.D. 221, 238
8 (S.D. W.Va. 2005) (MDL 1477). There is no basis for reaching a different 9 conclusion here.

10 Part of the concern regarding potential conflicts is addressed by the 11 Court's determination not to appoint the same counsel to a leadership position
12 involving more than one type of claimant. Each group of claimants will have 13 adequate representation in the leadership.
14

15 At best, the issue of whether such dual representations require
16 disqualification is premature. There will be other, more appropriate opportunities
17 to revisit the issue, such as the Court's consideration of the adequacy of counsel on 18 motions for class certification. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(4).
19

20 B. Appointments.
21

22 The Court makes the appointments listed below. The appointments
23 are personal in nature, and although the Court anticipates that appointees will draw 24 on the resources of their firms or their existing co-counsel, the appointee is the 25 member of the committee and responsible for the duties which he or she assumes.
26 At a coming hearing, the Court will discuss a process for evaluating appointees'
27 performance and commitment to the tasks assigned.

1 economic loss.

3 • A briefing schedule for Rule 12 or other pleadings motions
4 directed to the consolidated complaint(s) for economic loss.

6 • A briefing schedule for Rule 12 or other pleadings motions
7 directed to the personal injury/complaints. The number of such
8 motions shall be limited to two motions raising any common
9 issues affecting all or a substantial number of personal
10 injury/wrongful death complaints. The Court intends for such 11 motions to serve as bellwethers which will provide the parties
12 guidance with respect to the same issues in other cases before
13 further motions practice proceeds. Pleadings motions raising
14 issues unique to a particular plaintiff may be tendered without 15 limitation.

16 The parties shall submit a proposed order no later than May 26, 2010.
17 The proposed order shall reflect alternative provisions where there is a
18 dispute. The Liaison and Lead Counsel Committees may each
19 supplement the proposed order with a brief of no more than ten pages.

26 and Lead Counsel Committees may each supplement the proposed
27 order with a brief of no more than ten pages. The Toyota parties may

1 supplement the proposed order with a brief of no more than fifteen
2 pages.

- 3
- 4 • The timing and scope of Rule 26 initial disclosures.
 - 5
 - 6 • Such other matters as the parties jointly request the Court to take up
7 by filing a joint request no later than May 24, 2010.
 - 8

9 B. June 25, 2010, 9:00 a.m.

10 The hearing will address the following issues:

11

- 12 • Entry of an order establishing a comprehensive plan for all forms of 13 discovery and the entry of a protective order. The parties shall submit
14 proposed orders no later than June 21, 2010. The proposed orders
15 shall reflect alternative provisions where there is a dispute. The 16 Liaison and Lead Counsel Committees may each supplement the 17 proposed orders with one brief of no more than ten pages. The 18 Toyota parties may supplement the proposed orders with one brief of 19 no more than fifteen pages.

20

- 21 • To the extent not covered in the comprehensive plan, discussion of 22 the establishment of an electronic document depository and the 23 establishment of databases.

24

- 25 • Appointment of one or more discovery masters, including special
26 masters for attendance at foreign depositions. No later than June 23,
27 2010, the parties shall submit a proposed joint list of discovery

1 masters, which at a minimum shall include a resume and indication
2 that the candidate will accept appointment. Where there is no
3 agreement, plaintiffs collectively may propose up to five candidates,
4 and the Toyota parties may propose up to five candidates.

6 • Coordination with state cases and other types of federal cases. No
7 later than June 23, 2010, Plaintiffs' Liaison Counsel for State and 8 other Types of Federal Cases and Defendants' Liaison Counsel for 9 State and other Types of Federal Cases shall submit a joint report
10 with suggested procedures for coordination. The report shall also 11 address the status of the state cases, similar to Exhibit B to the Joint 12 Preliminary Report, and shall also address the status of any state
13 coordination proceedings.

15 • Discussion of the timing, content and format of a technical tutorial
16 for the Court.

17
18 • Such other matters as the parties jointly request the Court to take up
19 by filing a joint request no later than June 18, 2010.

20 C. Regular Hearings.

22 The Court believes that it would helpful to set aside one day each
23 month for a status conference, with the possible exception for the summer vacation
24 period and year-end holidays. The Court would invite a joint status report a week
25 in advance.

1 V. Attorney's Fees and Time Records.

3 There appears to be a consensus that plaintiffs' counsel should
4 maintain time records. (E.g., Joint Preliminary Report, pp. 6-7; Docket No. 42, p.
5 11.) Accordingly, the Court orders any counsel who intend to apply for fees in a 6 class action to maintain records sufficient to make and support a lodestar showing.
7 Perdue v. Kenny A., __ U.S. __, Slip Op. at pp. 7-8 (Apr. 21, 2010); Hanlon v.
8 Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1029 (9th Cir. 1998). Similarly, the Court orders 9 all counsel in the personal injury/wrongful death cases whose fees are subject to 10 Court approval for any reason to maintain records sufficient to make and support a 11 lodestar showing.

12 IT IS SO ORDERED.

In Re: Toyota Motor Corp. Unintended
Acceleration Marketing, Sales

Litigation

8:10ML02151 JVS (FMOx)

This document relates to:

ALL CASES

ORDER NO. 3: ADOPTION OF A
SCHEDULE FOR THE FILING OF
CONSOLIDATED COMPLAINT[S],
RULE 26(a)(1) INITIAL
DISCLOSURES, AND PLEADINGS
MOTIONS

On May 14, 2010, the Court issued an Order seeking the parties' positions on scheduling and preliminary discovery issues, including a deadline for the filing of consolidated class action complaint(s) for economic loss, briefing schedules for Rule 12 and other pleadings motions, the entry of an appropriate evidence preservation order, and the timing and scope of the Rule 26(a)(1) initial disclosures. Pursuant to that Order, the parties filed their Joint Statement re Proposed Scheduling Order (Docket No. 176), and each side filed their own brief as well (Docket Nos. 177, 178 (declaration), and 179), all of which the Court

1 reviewed in advance of the hearing. Upon review, and after considering the 2 arguments of the parties at the May 28, 2010, hearing, the Court makes the
3 following Order:

5 I. Initial Disclosures

7 A. Plaintiffs

9 Plaintiffs' initial disclosures shall be made no later than July 2, 2010.

10
11 B. Toyota Defendants¹

12
13 The Court is in agreement with defendants that full compliance with Rule
14 26(a)(1) is not appropriate in light of the complexity of these cases. However, the 15 Court is convinced that defendants have within their possession a defined set of 16 documents, consisting of approximately 75,000 to 100,000 pages, much or all of 17 which is likely to be discoverable, and which has already been produced to 18 Government entities to date, including without limitation to the United States
19 Congress and National Highway Traffic Safety Administration. Those documents
20 which are discoverable under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedures shall be 21 produced no later than July 2, 2010.

23 As discussed at the hearing, the present Order does not alter the scope of 24 documents that ultimately may be discoverable, nor does it limit objections to 25

26
27 ¹ The Toyota Defendants include Toyota entities named as defendants in the 28 member cases.

1 production on the basis that a document is not relevant² or is shielded by attorney-
2 client or work-product privilege.

4 The Court recognizes the difficulties regarding the documents using the
5 Japanese language; however, best efforts shall be made to produce such documents
6 no later than July 2, 2010, and thereafter any remaining production shall be made
7 on a rolling basis weekly. Defendants are not obligated to provide English
8 translations of the documents if such translations do not exist in the documents
9 produced to the Government entities.

11 Documents expected to be covered by the anticipated protective order shall 12 be produced no later than ten days after the entry of the protective order.

13 II. Filing of Consolidated Complaint(s)
14

15 Plaintiffs shall file the consolidated complaint(s) in the economic loss cases
16 no later than August 2, 2010.
17
18
19
20
21

22 ² Of course, when referring to “relevancy” in the discovery context, the 23 Court is not concerned with a document’s relevancy for admissibility purposes;
24 rather, the Court is concerned with the lower standard of relevancy applicable to a
25 document’s discoverability. Compare Fed. R. Evid. 401 (“‘Relevant evidence’
26 means evidence having any tendency to make the existence of any fact that is of 27 consequence to the determination of the action more probable or less probable than 28 it would be without the evidence.”) with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1) (“Relevant information need not be admissible at the trial if the discovery appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.”).

1 III. Pleadings Motions

3 A. Economic Loss Cases

5 Pleadings motions directed toward the consolidated complaint(s) shall be
6 filed no later than September 13, 2010. The oppositions to and replies in support
7 thereof shall be filed no later than October 12, 2010, and November 1, 2010,
8 respectively. The motions and oppositions shall not exceed sixty pages; the reply
9 shall not exceed twenty pages. The matter shall be heard on November 19, 2010,
10 at 9:00 a.m.

11 B. Personal Injury Cases

13 Pleadings motions that seek resolution of issues affecting all or a substantial
14 number of personal injury/wrongful death complaints shall be filed on the same 15 schedule, shall be subject to the same page limitations, and shall be heard at the 16 same time as the pleadings motions on the economic loss cases. As the Court
17 ordered previously, the number of such motions shall be limited to two motions.
18

19 Also as the Court ordered previously, pleadings motions raising issues
20 unique to a particular plaintiff may be tendered at any appropriate time. These 21 motions shall be subject to the page limitations set forth in Local Rule 11-6.
22

23 IV. Evidence Preservation Order

24
25 The parties shall continue to meet and confer in their attempt to resolve their
26 differences as to the evidence preservation order. Until a final evidence
27 preservation order is issued, the Interim Order remains in effect.
28

1 The parties shall submit a proposed order no later than June 21, 2010. The 2 proposed order shall reflect alternative provisions where there is a dispute. The 3 Liaison and Lead Counsel Committees may each again supplement the proposed
4 order with a brief of no more than ten pages. The Toyota parties may again
5 supplement the proposed order with a brief of no more than fifteen pages.

7 The Court will take this matter up again at the June 23, 2010, 9:00 a.m.
8 hearing.

10 V. Other Matters

11
12 A. Pretrial Consolidation and Coordination

13 The civil actions listed on Schedule A (attached hereto) are consolidated for 14 pretrial purposes. Any related or "tag-along" actions that become a part of this
15 proceeding by virtue of being instituted in, removed to, or transferred to this Court
16 (including, without limitation, cases transferred pursuant to Local Rules, 28 U.S.C.
17 § 1404(a), or 28 U.S.C. § 1407), will automatically be consolidated with this action
18 without the necessity of future motions or orders.
